To whom it may concern,

H2O Worldwide Group, Inc. has been selected as an authorized distributor of EcoZoom Global for humanitarian aid, disaster relief, government aid organizations, and emergency preparedness in the Caribbean and Central American regions.

EcoZoom is a social enterprise and certified B Corp dedicated to bringing ecological products to the all the world's consumers. EcoZoom cookstoves offer a solution that is healthy, efficient and ecofriendly. They reduce fuel need, reduce toxic smoke and emissions and include features that reduce burn risk, making cooking safer for cooks, children and the environment.

EcoZoom opened its head-quarters in Nairobi, Kenya in May 2013 after extensive market research and field testing. We bring high-value products to market so customers know they aren't wasting their money on something that doesn't work or will break in a couple weeks. We stand behind our products and guarantee each one with a minimum 1-year warranty

EcoZoom has been involved in multiple relief programs all over the global, mostly in African countries such as Somalia, Nigeria and Rwanda. But we have also done relief projects in Papua New Guinee, Haiti and Mexico.

We are pleased to work with H2O Worldwide Group in a mutual effort to help people worldwide and provide our stoves to those in need.

Sincerely,
